

The ProVI is a statement piece for your newly renovated kitchen. With dial knob controls, it is one of the most innovative range hoods on the market. You can adjust the blower speed however you like, and control the brightness of your Halogen lights over the cooktop. This island range hood is not only innovative but also modern and beautiful. Built with a sleek 430 stainless steel finish, this vent hood will catch the eyes of all your guests. It's also equipped with stainless steel baffle filters that are incredibly easy to clean. Just toss them in the dishwasher and you're done! Cook to your heart's content with the 1200 CFM local blower, 1700 CFM local blower, or the 1300 CFM inline blower in this island range hood. The inline blower is an exceptional choice if you're bothered by noise, but both are ultra-quiet given their impressive power.
