

The PLJI 102 is a professional island range hood that will accommodate all of your cooking needs. It features a powerful 1200 CFM blower that will rid your kitchen of smoke, grease, dirt, and other contaminants. If you don't need the maximum power, no problem! Use the elegant LCD glass touch panel to adjust the blower between four speeds. For added convenience, it's on two sides of your hood. While cooking, enjoy a bright cooktop, illuminated with two long-lasting LED lights. The PLJI 102 is manufactured with durable 304 stainless steel and 430 stainless steel as well, so you won't have to obsess over keeping it clean. Cleaning filters is no sweat either; use the handle to easily remove them from your hood and then place them in the dishwasher for an effortless clean. You'll enjoy a smooth cooking experience with the PLJI 102.
