

Our PLJI 109 You won't find many residential hoods on the market to match the power of our PLJI 109.36 island mounted range hood. The 1200 CFM dual blower has exceptional power, fit for any task in the kitchen: steaks, pizzas, wok-style cooking, frying...with this island hood, you can cook anything. And it doesn't always have to be on full blast! The concealed stainless steel push button control panel allows you to adjust between four different speeds. You can find it right under the front of the hood! The PLJI 109 has LED lights that shine brilliantly over your entire cooktop. Thanks to these long-lasting lights, before you know it you'll be able to join your guests and enjoy delicious food. But, don't get settled quite yet. Take your baffle filters and place them into the dishwasher if they're looking greasy. Call us today to enjoy your beautiful new PLJI 109.
