

The PLJW 102 has a modern, user-friendly design that will complement any kitchen. It features LED lights, making cooking easier than ever. The model also includes a sleek LCD touch control panel, which has four speeds. Turn the hood to max speed if you've got smoke building up in your house, or go with the quietest setting to enjoy the company of your guests. Cleaning is no problem either with our conveniently dishwasher-safe stainless steel baffle filters. Do you find yourself cooking a lot? If so, this hood is for you. The PLJW 102 operates at a strong 1000 CFM, ideal to cook a wide variety of foods. You can also put heat lamps into the two sockets in the back of this model to warm up all your delicious food right before it's served. Cook more in less time and enjoy clean kitchen air with this beautiful range hood.
